

Prayer Corner

Prayer for the Departed

For all the faithful who have died we pray,
but in particular for those dear to us,
parents, relatives and friends.
nor do we forget all who did good to us while on earth,
who helped us by their prayers, sacrifice and example.
We pray also for any who may have done us harm,
and stand in special need of Your forgiveness.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

There's no point in burying the hatchet if your going to put a marker on the site

Anthony Foley Mass appeal prompts massive response

The initiative launched by the son of Munster legend Anthony 'Axel' Foley to get people going back to Mass has been met with huge support across Ireland and beyond.

Eleven-year-old Tony set up a Facebook page in honour of his father to appeal to people to attend Mass for eight Sundays to Christmas to remember both the famed player and other deceased family and friends.

Fr James Grace of St Finnan's church, said "People are responding greatly, ours and neighbouring churches were packed. It was like Christmas morning."

Earthquake hits Norcia but no mention of its most famous son

How many Irish people today have heard of St Benedict of Nursia (Norcia)? Few enough I would say, and they won't have been any the wiser if they watched the Six One News on RTE television last Sunday evening.

The bulletin duly reported the earthquake in the central Italian town of Norcia, and it mentioned the fact that the basilica named 'St Benedict' was almost destroyed. But it didn't mention the fact that the town is the birthplace of St Benedict, founder of the Benedictines, and one of the most influential Europeans ever, so much so that Pope Paul VI named him the Patron of Europe in 1964.

Prominent Republican Anne Brolly quits Sinn Féin

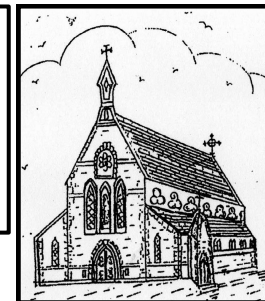

Speaking last weekend after the first meeting of Cherish All The Children Equally, a new cross-border pro-life lobby group, Anne Brolly said Sinn Féin's 2015 motion to support abortion access in cases of foetal abnormality "was a step too far for me"

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: 2 Mac. 7: 1-2. 9-14
Responsorial Psalm: Psalm: 16
Second Reading: 2 Thess. 2: 16-3:5
Gospel: Lk. 20: 27-38

"Now he is God, not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all men are in fact alive."

Seeing your life through the lens of the gospels

It sounds like a trick question; the Sadducees are setting Jesus up for a fall. One suspects that whatever answer Jesus gives to their very technical question about death will be used to catch him out. The Sadducees are introduced as opponents of belief in the resurrection.

Quoting the Law of Moses, under which a man whose brother died without children was obliged to marry his brother's widow, their question presents a hypothetical, far-fetched case. The story involves seven marriages and eight deaths, when you include the woman at its centre.

But Jesus surprises them with his answer, making their question seem ridiculous in the process. He brushes aside the premise of their case with what one commentator calls a 'theological shrug'. He sidesteps their attempt to trap him by affirming the reality of the life to come, which he says will be very different from how we imagine it. While we tend to think that heaven will be an improved and happier version of our earthly life, Jesus says the reality is different. The relationships and structures of this life will be transformed in the next, far beyond our expectations. What we do know is that we will be with God. We might imagine it in the words from today's Psalm: 'I shall be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory, O Lord.' Triona Doherty

Children's Liturgy

We would hope to have a children's liturgy during the 10.30am Sunday
Mass, for children from 1st, 2nd and 3rd classes.

This would mean that children would leave during the liturgy of the word to explore a simplified version of the Gospel of the day.

We would appeal to parents, or indeed any adults who would be interested in working with the children, to contact the parish office or Fr. O'Brien before the 20th Nov. This will only be possible if there are adults willing to help.
