TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Is. 5: 1-7
 Responsorial Psalm: Psalm; 79
 Second Reading: Phil. 4: 6-9
 Gospel: Matt. 21: 33-43

"I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit."

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPELS

As someone who has willingly left these shores to assist people on the margins, I am familiar with the inhumanity of man to his fellow man, where millions of people are left to their own devices, forgotten in their own poverty. The I'm alright attitude permeates not just the so called 'developing world'; it is alive and well here in Ireland.

Does God, like the absentee landowner in the gospel parable, leave us and depart for another country? A personal relationship with anybody means that the person is present. God should be no different. God is deep within our heart, not something out there and distant! I battle with the castigation of the high priests and elders, the negative portrayal of the people of God, and the raw deal for the slaves that came to rescue the situation. Is this the forgiving God that out of the worst injustices can transform human hearts?

So where is the hope? Jesus doesn't condemn in the passage: he invites us to understand his meaning. He asks the elders what they would do. This question is asked of us too.

Jesus then refocuses the parable: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; this was the Lord's doing, and it is amazing in our eyes'. This is the high point of this gospel, where Jesus reminds us of the marvel that he is: the one that was rejected, the one that was overlooked – the one abandoned by us. It is this stone, this rock, that becomes our Saviour. The rock symbolises one who never leaves us. God loves us not because we are good but because God is good.

Thank you

From Canon Anthony O'Brien

A very sincere thanks to all Carrigtwohill parishioners for your initial welcome, your continuous support of my efforts to serve the Lord in and through living and working for seven fulfilling years as your parish priest, and for your farewell party which I thoroughly enjoyed. I thank you one and all, especially those who contributed to the presentations, those who organised the collections, the party and those who spoke on the night. May the Lord continue to bless and protect you all. Fr. Anthony
