As the time drew near for him to be taken up to heaven, he resolutely took the road for Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out, and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him, but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem. Seeing this, the disciples James and John said, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?' 'But he turned and rebuked them, and they went off to another village. As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' Jesus answered, 'Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.' Another to whom he said, 'Follow me', replied, 'Let me go and bury my father first.' But he answered, 'Leave the dead to bury their dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.' Another said, 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me go and say goodbye to my people at home.' Jesus said to him, 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.' Luke 9:51-62

Responsorial Psalm 15

O Lord, it is you who are my portion..

Follow me

" today's reading is about the radical demands of discipleship. Neither care of self, care for the dead, nor care of one's family can come before the demands of discipleship. Jesus seems harsh here, but he is only asking of his disciples what he asks of himself. Jesus' unconditional commitment to God's saving work will demand of him his life. He knows this, but the disciples do not understand. Jesus does not want anyone to rush into discipleship, because the demands of discipleship require everyone considering it to be aware of the cost, make Jesus and his mission central to his life, and then go forward without looking back.!. Review of Safeguarding Children Policy and Procedures in the Diocese of Cloyne

A review into the Safeguarding Children practices and procedures will take place in the Diocese of Cloyne on the last week of June. Bishop Crean has invited the National Board for Safeguarding Children in Ireland to undertake this Review. Two reviewers will be visiting the Diocese to audit how the Diocese has implemented the Policy for Safeguarding Children in the Diocese. If a person wished to make contact with reviewers or submit an observation or opinion regarding Safeguarding Children in the Diocese of Cloyne then they should do so by contacting the Safeguarding Children National Board, New House, St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, Co. Kildare by the 27th of June. Contact can be made through email at the following address acunningham@safeguarding.ie. or by phone on 01 5053124. Indicate when contacting the Board that it is in relation to the Review into the Cloyne Diocese

School Holidays

We wish everyone involved in schools a safe and restful holiday. Thanks to all the staff of the Schools in the Parish for their hard work and dedication during the year.

Celebrating the 150th Anniversary of the Consecration of St. Mary's Church

Thanks to all who celebrated Evening Prayer on Friday 24th and to all who assisted at the Liturgy and at the refreshments afterwards.
A wonderful evening was had by all.

Fathers and Mothers The power of a love that generates

“The path to holiness taken by a father or mother involves growing in their love for each other and in the love they give to their children. There is such a beautiful and powerful calling in becoming fathers and mothers. This call consists in sharing with God the power of a love that generates life, in the flesh and in the spirit. The call lasts a lifetime and under all circumstances. The love of a man and a woman is always fruitful, even when there are no children or when the parents become elderly. In fact, spouses can always create children of God. The love of a father and a mother eager to embrace their call to holiness, goes so far as to perform acts that only God is capable of: to create and forgive. Every time a father and mother welcome a life and cherish it, every time they forgive each other and resume their journey, they bring Heaven to earth. For in that moment it is the Holy Spirit who has acted in them. <https://www.romefamily2022.com/en/catechesi-6/>

10th World Meeting of Families, 22 – 26 June,
'Family love: a vocation and a path to holiness.'

Prayer for the World Meeting of Families 2022

Heavenly Father,

We come before You to praise You and to thank You for the great gift of the family.

We pray to You for all families consecrated by the Sacrament of Matrimony.

May they rediscover each day
the grace they have received,
and as small domestic Churches,
may they know how to witness to Your presence and to the love with which Christ loves the Church.

We pray to You for all families faced with difficulty and suffering caused by illness or circumstances of which only You know.

Sustain them and make them aware of the path to holiness upon which You call them, so that they might experience Your infinite mercy
and find new ways to grow in love.

We pray to You for children and young people:
may they encounter You and respond joyfully
to the vocation You have in mind for them;

We pray for parents and grandparents: may they be aware that they are signs of the fatherhood and motherhood of God in caring for the children who, in body and spirit, You entrust to them;
and for the experience of fraternity
that the family can give to the world.

Lord, grant that each family
might live their specific vocation to holiness in the Church as a call to become missionary disciples,
in the service of life and peace,
in communion with our priests, religious,
and all vocations in the Church.

Bless the World Meeting of Families. Amen.
