The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, ‘The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. ‘Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, “Peace to this house!” And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. ‘Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, “The kingdom of God is very near to you.” But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, “We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near.” I tell you, on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.’ The seventy-two came back rejoicing. ‘Lord,’ they said ‘even the devils submit to us when we use your name.’ He said to them, ‘I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.’” Luke 10:1-12,17-20

Pray for those who have died. May they rest in peace.

We pray for Mary (Maureen) Breen, (Castlelake, Pease Tce) who died recently: for Siobhan Barrett and Julia May Twomey whose months minds occur: for those whose anniversaries occur at this time: Denis John Hayes, Jerome Griffin, Daniel Twomey, Jimmy Cronin and Kitty Donovan.

Holy Communion: A low gluten host is available from the priest at Communion time.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Monday – 10.30am to 6pm.

The Apostolate of Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is a great source of nourishment for the life of the Parish. The Parish is grateful to this who have dedicated themselves to spending time before the Blessed Sacrament each Monday. This ensures that this Apostolate can be available to others. The importance of praying before the Blessed Sacrament is highlighted by many of the Saints and Popes. If a person is free on a Monday, you might consider joining this Apostolate of Prayer. Every one person dedicated to a particular time helps those who are already involved.

Sacraments of Confirmation, Confession and Holy Communion 2023

Parents/ guardians who wish to have their child enrolled for the celebration and reception of these Sacraments in 2023 must register their child with the Parish through the parish office. Notice has been given through the schools to parents/guardians. Registration is to be made before 10th of July at the latest. Contact Parish Office for information.

Let us continue to pray for Peace in Ukraine and in the world.

Parish Collection

Volunteers need to take up the Collection at Masses. If those who volunteered before and would like to resume this ministry, please let the Parish Office know.

It is hoped that the collection baskets will be passed around again. This has begun in other parishes already.

Parish Finances

The Parish is grateful to those who contribute financially to the Parish as the Parish seeks to continue to meet the financial demands of Parish life today. In an every changing financial uncertainty with the cost of living increasing it is not easy for families and households today. In the situation of today thanks to all who are helping the parish, financially but also to those who have given commitment of time and expertise on a voluntary capacity to the parish and to all who are praying with and for the Parish.

Pope Francis has published an Apostolic Letter Desiderio Desideravi reflecting on the Liturgy and its importance in our lives and how we celebrate the Liturgy.

“With this letter I simply want to invite the whole Church to rediscover, to safeguard, and to live the truth and power of the Christian celebration. I want the beauty of the Christian celebration and its necessary consequences for the life of the Church not to be spoiled by a superficial and foreshortened understanding of its value or, worse yet, by its being exploited in service of some ideological vision, no matter what the hue. The priestly prayer of Jesus at the Last Supper that all may be one (Jn 17:21) judges every one of our divisions around the Bread broken, around the sacrament of mercy, the sign of unity, the bond of charity.”

Pope Francis Prayer intention for July

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people, that their experience and wisdom will help those who are younger to look to the future with hope and responsibility.”.

Pope Francis Message for July prayer intention

“We cannot speak about family without talking about the importance of the elderly among us.

There have never been so many of us in the history of humanity, but we don’t quite know how to live this new stage of life: there are many plans for assistance for the old age, but few projects for existence.

We elderly people often have a special sensitivity for care, for reflection, and affection.

We are, or we can become, teachers of tenderness. And indeed we can! In this world accustomed to war, we need a true revolution of tenderness. We have a great responsibility towards new generations about this.

Let us remember: grandparents and the elderly are the bread that nourishes our lives, the hidden wisdom of a people. That is why we must celebrate them, and I have established a day dedicated to them.

Let us pray for the elderly, that they may become teachers of tenderness so that their experience and wisdom may help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.”

Pope Francis message for world day of prayer for grandparents and the elderly

“A long life – so the Bible teaches – is a blessing, and the elderly are not outcasts to be shunned but living signs of the goodness of God who bestows life in abundance. Blessed is the house where an older person lives! Blessed is the family that honours the elderly!”

Lord thank you for the gift of life. Without you we cannot exist, without you we would not be here. It is your love that has brought us into this world and sustains in this life. It is your love that transforms our life along each stage of our earthly journey. We ask you Lord to bless those among us who are senior among us. We thank you for them and for their wisdom and presence.
