Matthew 5:13-16

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘You are the salt of the earth. But if salt becomes tasteless, what can make it salty again? It is good for nothing, and can only be thrown out to be trampled underfoot by men.

‘You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill-top cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.’

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 111(112):4-9

The good man is a light in the darkness for the upright.

Christianity

In the home it is kindness. In society it is courtesy.

In business it is honesty. In work it is fairness.

Towards the weak it is help. Towards the unfortunate it is sympathy.

Towards the wicked it is resistance. Towards the strong it is trust.

Towards the penitent it is forgiveness.

Towards the successful it is congratulations.

And toward God it is reverence and obedience.

Mission Prayer for the Parish

We thank you Lord for the gift of faith which enriches our lives and community. Christ Jesus, the Corner Stone of our Faith, send us the Holy Spirit to guide and enlighten us. May Your Holy Spirit give us courage to be witnesses of your joy and love to others. With Mary, the Mother of Jesus to walk with us, we give glory to God the Father in all we do. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Pope Francis Prayer Intention for February 2023

“Sometimes I think that we should put a sign on the door of parishes that says, “Free admission.” Parishes should be close-knit communities, without bureaucracy, people-centered —a place where the gift of the sacraments can be found. They have to become once again schools of service and generosity, with their doors always open to those who are excluded. And to those included. To all. Parishes are not a club for the few, which give a certain kind of social belonging. Please, let us be daring. Let us all rethink the style of our parochial communities. Let us pray that parishes, placing communion –communion of people, ecclesial communion– at the centre, may increasingly become communities of faith, of fraternity and of welcoming the most in need.”

Celebrated Marriage in the Parish Church Celebrating the Beauty and Joy of Marriage

Those who celebrated the Sacrament of Marriage in the Church in the last 150 years.

A collage of wedding photos is being prepared for the weekend of the 11th/12th February. Anyone who has a photo of theirs or others wedding that took place in the Church, even if the photo is not of the Church but had a wedding in the Church and would like it to be included please send it in to the Parish via email, or bring it to the Office where a photo can be taken of it for the Collage by Tuesday.

Focusing on the Communion of the People over the 150 years of the opening of the Church.

At next Sunday Masses the Parish will recognise those who have been married, 10, 25, 30, 40, 50, 55 + years. If a couple celebrating Sacramental Marriage for these occasions this year and would like to be recognised please contact the Parish Office or any member of the Parish Pastoral Council.

“when guilt and sadness overwhelm us, when things do not go well, we know where to look: to the wounds of Jesus, who is ever ready to forgive us with his infinite, wounded love. He knows your wounds;”

Pope Francis on 1/2/23 in the Democratic Republic of the Congo

Let us build a house where love can dwell

Marty Haugen

Let us build a house
Where love can dwell
And all can safely live
A place where
Saints and children tell
How hearts learn to forgive
Built of hopes and dreams and visions
Rock of faith and vault of grace
Here the love of Christ shall end divisions

All are welcome, all are welcome
All are welcome in this place

Let us build a house where prophets speak
And words are strong and true
Where all God's children dare to seek
To dream God's reign anew
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:
